

KCSE TRIAL 2019

ENGLISH PAPER 3 QUESTIONS

1. (20 Marks)

Imaginative Composition (compulsory)

- a Write a story beginning with the following words. The day started like any other day. Little did I know.....
- b Write a composition to illustrate the saying... 'Do not count your chicks before they hatch.'

2 (20 Marks)

The compulsory Set Text

Bertolt Brecht: Caucasian Chalk Circle: 'Good will always triumph over evil' Drawing illustrations from Bertolt Brecht's play The Caucasian Chalk Circle, write an essay in support of this statement. The optional Set Texts.

3 (20 Marks)

The short story

- a The short story: When the Sun Goes Down and other stories by Illieva and Olembo.

'People only see what best serves their interests'. Basing your illustrations on Michael Antony's short story Sandra Street, write an essay to show how subjective human beings can be.

- b Drama: Francis Imbuga, Betrayal in The City.

'Hypocritical leadership in Kafira denies the citizen their rights' 'Closely referring to Imbuga's play Betrayal in the city, write an essay to justify the above observation.

- c Witi Ihimara: The Whale Rider

The Maori culture faces many challenges with the changing world, using illustrations from Witi Ihimara. The Whale Rider write a composition in support of this statement.